By way of entry competitors shall indemnify the Organising Authority member organisations, their officers, members, servants and agents in respect to all claims and demands of whatever nature which may be made upon them in connection with or howsoever arising from their participation or intended participation.

15.2. The Organising Authority member organisations, their officers, members, servants and agents accept no responsibility in respect of loss of life, personal injury or loss or damage to property which may be sustained by reason of their participation or intended participation in an Event or howsoever arising in connection with an Event.

15.3. All competitors applying for entry shall have, through the lodgement of the entry, acknowledged and agreed to the Flying Eleven Sailing Association of Australia Inc race document - Conditions of Entry.

16. Risk Warning

16.1. This Risk Warning is issued, pursuant to the Civil Liability Act 2002, to all persons wishing to participate in the 2016-2017 Flying Eleven NSW State Championship by the Championship Organising Authority. Participants are warned that, regardless of the precautions, which might be taken by reasonable and experienced persons, sailing can be a dangerous pursuit and participants are exposed to significant risk of property damage, physical harm and possibly death.

16.2. As an indication, these risks may include, but are not limited to:

- The extremes of weather and sea conditions.
- The potential that control of vessels may be lost, resulting in collision with objects and other vessels.
- The sudden movement of the vessel at any time and the possibility that participants may fall or be thrown overboard, resulting in drowning.
- The possibility that participants may be injured by equipment on the vessel.

- The absence of immediate medical care and the likelihood that significant delays may occur before medical care is available.
- Exposure to the elements for extended periods.
- The possible presence of dangerous marine life.

16.3. The Organising Authority also warns participants that regardless of their best intentions, they may be unable to render assistance to participants who are in distress. Participants are warned to consider the above risks and all other risks before deciding to participate in the Championship. Participants are also advised that although the Organising Authority is covered by third party liability insurance, this cover does not extend to participants. Any participant who considers they have a need for insurance must make their own private arrangements with an insurer.

17. Insurance

Each participating boat shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of $10million per incident or the equivalent.

18. Media Rights/Photography Consent

In participating in the Championship regattas, a competitor grants to the Organising Authority and the sponsors of the Championship, the right in perpetuity, to make, reproduce, edit, use and show, from time to time and at their discretion, any motion pictures, still pictures and live, taped or film television and other reproductions of him/her taken during the period of the Championship regattas and to use his /her likeness, voice, name and any other information in any material related to the Championship without compensation.

19. Amendment

This Notice of Race may be amended and any amendment will be published on the event website www.flying11.yachting.org.au.
